Over a Thousand Exquisite Jewelry Pieces for the Perfect Mother's Day Gifts

The Taipei Branch, Administrative Enforcement Agency, Ministry of Justice is pleased to announce the 123 Joint Auction scheduled for Tuesday, May 2nd, 2023. This event will be held in the auction room on the 4th floor of the branch, commencing at 3:00 p.m. (the sale of movable property will begin at 2:00 p.m.) As a special offering on the eve of Mother's Day, the branch is presenting a remarkable assortment of exquisite jewelry items, numbering in the thousands. These items will be available for auction, with a minimum starting price of only NT$150 per piece. Put an end to the quandary of selecting a thoughtful Mother's Day gift to express your gratitude by exploring the diverse selection of stunning accessories offered at the auction. In addition, the auction will feature the sale of various items, including movable properties such as a BMW

318i compact car, glove and mask sets and umbrellas, as well as 67 parcels of land. We extend a warm invitation to the general public to attend this auction.

The auction will feature a collection of over a thousand exquisite jewelry pieces, including 3 red coral necklaces, 44 red (pink) coral bracelets, 248 coral and Taiwanese jade bracelets, and 347 crystal accessories, pocket watches and bracelets. Additionally, there will be 966 pieces of accessories that have been showcased at renowned department stores in Europe and the United States. Each item will have a minimum starting price of just NT$150, offering both quality and affordability, making them the perfect choice for Mother's Day gifts. Furthermore, the auction will also include a BMW 318i luxury compact car. This silver-colored vehicle was manufactured in January 2016 and has an engine capacity of 1,499CC. This particular car is being re-auctioned, and the highest bidder who reaches at least half of the previous reserve price will have the opportunity to become the proud owner of this European luxury car. In addition, there will be movable properties such as practical mask and glove sets, umbrellas and company shares available for auction. We cordially invite the public to attend and make their selections at this event.

There will also be a total of 67 land parcels available for bidding. These parcels are located in prime areas such as Xinyi District and Wanhua District in Taipei City, as well as Xindian District, Shengkeng District and Pinglin District in New Taipei

City. Each of these properties represents an excellent investment opportunity or a desirable location for personal use. Prospective buyers who are interested in purchasing any of these properties can either attend the auction in person or through remote bidding based on their individual needs.

For individuals wishing to participate in remote bidding for the real estate section, they may either visit the Taipei Branch in person or access the “Real Estate Remote Bidding Section” on the branch’s website (www.tpy.moj.gov.tw) to acquire the necessary bidding documents, bid envelopes and related files. It is important to note that besides completing the bidding form and providing the requisite deposit, the bid envelope must also clearly indicate the auction date, time and case number. The bid envelope should be sent via double-registered mail to the P.O. Box 198 at Taipei Changchun Road Post Office one day prior to the auction date. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in the bid being considered invalid.
